

ARTIST

French self-taught artist based in New York, seeking fellowship at AIR Gallery in Brooklyn.

Passionate female artist, developing a personal visual identity with a strong focus on women and femininity in general.

EXPERIENCE

2011 - Now : full time artist – designs, developpes art pieces, using mostly acrylic paint on paper or canvas – markets own work on online platform, brick and mortar stores, and through social media, incl.

Instagram

2015 – Now: co-founder of WOOLN. WOOLN designs and sells a line of winter accessories handknit in New York by senior knitters - Ethical fashion

EDUCATION

Ongoing: workshops at the Art Student League, Pratt Institute, and The New School.

2004-2007: ESSEC Business School, PARIS, Master in Business

EXHIBITIONS

2018: Group Show at Galerie Esther et Paul, PARIS

2018: Group Show at Brooklyn Collective, BROOKLYN, NY

COMMISSIONS

Has made commissioned portraits or other art works for private clients

Worked on illustrations for website YOOM (www.liveyoom.com), illustrating different massages techniques

SKILLS

Acrylic Paint, Oil Pastels, Colored Pencils, Monoprinting, Direct Plaster Sculpture, use of Social Media